National Awakening and Nationalism of the Ukrainian Nation from Cossack Time to the Beginning of the 20th Century

By Nico Rausch

GRIN Verlag. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 24 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.5in. x 0.4in. Seminar paper from the year 2007 in the subject Politics - Political Systems - History, grade: 1, 3, Vilnius University, 7 entries in the bibliography, language: English, abstract: To describe the Ukrainian nationalism I will also use the famous concept from the Czech historian Hroch who is dividing the national movements into three phases. Phase 1) cultural awakening- a small group of educated people develops an interest in language, history and folklore of an ethnic group. Phase 2) national agitation- the implementation of national consciousness into a wider circle of the population in order to mobilize them and to integrate them into a national community which will lead to Phase 3) mass movement with its goal of political autonomy (Hroch in Kappeler 2001 Weeks 1996). The case of Ukraine is in this sense not very easy to look at because of several events, in form of national policies of two influential Empires. Another interesting theoretical point of view is the distinction between ancient and young nations and their prospects to form a successful national movement. The former having a tradition of a national elite, and high...
