In the middle a thyrsos stands upright, upon which is hung on either side a thick garland laden with fruit, the other end of each garland being held up by a Cupid with a chlamys at his back. Within each of the curves formed by the two garlands two large Bacchic heads, facing each other; on the l. Dionysos wreathed with ivy and vine, and Seilenos bearded and bald-headed with a wreath of ivy; on the r. a Satyr with disordered hair and light beard and moustaches wreathed with pine, a pedum beside him, and a Maenad, with a plait wound round her hair, with a wreath of ivy. Beneath each garland lie two animals, on the l. a panther...
