Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Words do matter, regardless of what some folks may want us to believe. After all, the Scriptures tell us that God created the world with the power of spoken words. As human, we often under-estimate the power of words, especially those with the possibility of bringing into existence that which otherwise would not be, or to reinforce destiny. That was how the biggest movement of change in recent history gained the kind of momentum required to turn the son of a single mother into the President of the United States of America. In other words, we can become a summation of our thought processes and a product of the words we speak. However, words without deeds cannot just be enough; because actions speak louder than words in most cases. For me and my two flatmates Robyn and Gabriel from Oregon and New York respectively, it was not just an exchange of opinions, but also our own opportunity to put the debates into perspective, and to ultimately contribute in shaping that historical event, even...
