

One Lord, One Truth, One Faith The Only Legacy Worth Leaving

By Maurie Daigneau

iUniverse, Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 108 pages. Dimensions: 8.7in. x 5.9in. x 0.4in. In the summer before his senior year as quarterback of Northwestern University's football team, Maurie Daigneau attended his first Fellowship of Christian Athletes conference. By mid-week, his life had been changed forever. He had become a born-again Christian. For the next 16 years, his life had all the accepted appearances of true faith: great marriage, five wonderful children, vocational contentment, heavy church involvement, and a genuine desire to be living rightly before the Lord. Then it happened: a troubling life circumstance that filled Maurie with bitterness and disillusionment. He clung to his faith foundation, but it was like sand. Something was wrong and he knew it, but where could he go for help? Unable to reconcile these feelings with his faith, Maurie opened his heart to the Lord. What did he not understand? Where had he gone wrong? One Lord, One Truth, One Faith is the story of a passionate searching and a significant discovery. Writing to his children, Maurie lays out the heart of that discovery: the truth of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, a truth he had never known. This item ships from...
