My situation in the Company s service has of late been very unpleasant to me, from the domineering behaviour of some new people who have come into power here. I had actually written a note to resign, and return to my family, that I might spend the rest of my days in undivided attention to my Missionary duties. I trust we shall be directed to that which is eventually for the glory of God, and our souls good: my own health and strength begin to fail, and I can by no means labour as I used to do formerly. But as I am going off the stage, I rejoice that it has pleased the Lord to send others to continue the work. Trade in China has fallen off very much: by the failure of one of the native merchants I have lost six thousand dollars. May this find you all in life and health, and in the enjoyment of the Divine blessing. Farewell. Ever your affectionate brother, Robert Morrison. From the following letters it will appear that the liberal feelings which influenced the subject of these Memoirs in his efforts to extend the Redeemer s The design was relinquished, in consequence of a change taking place in the authorities. 1830. LETTER FROM THE REV. J. EVARTS. 435 kingdom, were not unacknowledged by those who felt the importance of his services. Missionary Rooms, Boston, Oct. 15, 1830....
