It is much greater to have had such a man to lose. He was the child of the people: He was the type of the people. From Mr. Robinson's Eulogy on General Grant. I would the great world grew like thee, Who grewest not alone in power And knowledge, but by year and hour In reverence and charity. Tennyson. Heart-affluence in discursive talk From household fountains never dry; The critic clearness of an eye That saw through all the Muses walk; Seraphic intellect and force To seize and throw the doubts of man; Impassioned logic, which outran The hearer in its fiery course; And manhood fused with female grace In such a sort, the child would twine A trustful hand, unasked, in thine, And find his comfort in thy face; All these have been, and thee mine eyes Have looked on: if they looked in vain, My shame...
