Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Activities of the Committee on Public Information, Vol. 18 My Dear Mr. Creel: I have just finished reading the report of the Committee on Public Information which you were kind enough to bring me last week, and I want to say how much it has gratified me and how entirely the work being done by the committee meets with my approval. I have kept in touch with that work, piece by piece, as you know, in our several interviews, but had not realized its magnitude when assembled in a single statement. I feel confident that as the work of the committee progresses it will more and more win the public approval and confidence. My Dear Mr. President: As will be seen by the accompanying report, the Committee on Public Information has grown to be a world organization. Not only does it touch every part of the great machinery that coordinates the forces of America for victory, but it carries the meanings and purposes of America to all peoples, making the fight for public opinion in every country. Besides the daily war news, which it issues to the whole press of the country, it supplies some 30,000 newspapers with feature articles, a weekly news service, and governmental publicity material of all sorts. It has prepared and printed for distribution to all parts of the world 18,000,000 copies of 15 different pamphlets in seven languages. It conducts speaking campaigns in every State of the Union, arranges meetings, books speakers, conducts war conferences, and organizes tours; and in the Four Minute Men alone it commands the volunteer services of 15,000 public speakers. It has wireless and cable...
