While at the University, he is required to write reports and examinations for various courses in almost all departments. Rhetoric 1 and 2 should assist him to write these reports and examinations correctly and well. They also should assist him to express himself adequately in the practical affairs of life after he leaves the University. Objectives of Rhetoric 1 In Rhetoric 1, the student should strive - 1. To improve in his ability to write exposition. To this end, he will be asked, whenever he is assigned a subject, (a) to find a significant thesis, guiding purpose, or main idea regarding it; (b) to divide his exposition into its component parts; and (c) to develop these parts by definition, by details, by illustration, by comparison, or by other methods of exposition so that the thesis or main idea will be interestingly and clearly presented. The finished exposition should show an orderly and purposeful progression of thought. Themes will be from 350 to 600 words in length, with a final longer theme of about 1200 words. 2. To improve in his ability to use words, sentences, and paragraphs - that is, (a) to use concrete words that exactly fit his thought; (b) to write sentences that are clear and forceful; and (c) to compose paragraphs that adequately develop a distinct phase of the subject. In Rhetoric 1, the student should develop a critical sense which will enable him to detect errors and illogicalities in his writing and to improve...
